MICHIGAN STREET AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE CORRIDOR COMMISSION REOPENING CELEBRATION!

Buffalo, NY — The Michigan Street African American Heritage Corridor Commission (MSAAHCC) is excited to announce that on Saturday September 26, 2020 from 11:00 AM - 4:00 PM we will be celebrating the official reopening of our four anchor organizations. The anchors include the Colored Musicians Club & Museum, Michigan Street Baptist Church, The Nash House, and WUFO Radio. Pre-registration is required.

We welcome the public to tour our organizations and learn about the African American cultural significance and impact on Buffalo's history.

Tours will continue to be offered on Saturdays with advance registration throughout the fall. We now offer package tours for the Michigan Street Baptist Church & Nash House, as well as individual tours of the specific sites. Register for a tour here.

In addition to our re-opening, the MSAAHCC will be hosting a community clean up day on Saturday, September 19, 2020 from 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM. We welcome volunteers to join us to make the neighborhood more beautiful before our official reopening! Learn more and sign-up to be a volunteer here.

As an advocate for the community, the Michigan Street African American Heritage Corridor Commission endeavors to integrate the African American cultural significance and impact on Buffalo's history through public engagement, community education that will encourage cultural appreciation, preservation and community development.
